Air Wisconsin Airlines is a regional airline based in Appleton, Wisconsin. The airline operates flights through partnerships with major carriers, including services under brands such as American Eagle. Because of these partnerships, some customer service requests—especially reservations, ticket changes, and baggage issues—may need to be handled by the operating partner airline rather than Air Wisconsin directly.

Before calling, keep these details ready:

- Confirmation number
- Passenger name
- Travel date
- Departure and arrival airports
- Ticket number

This information allows the airline representative to locate your booking quickly.

How to Contact Air Wisconsin About Baggage Issues

Baggage assistance depends on which airline issued your ticket.

If your baggage is:

- Lost
- Delayed
- Damaged

- Missing after a flight

you should contact the airline responsible for your reservation or baggage service.

Air Wisconsin's customer service information explains that baggage services are handled by its operating partners rather than directly by Air Wisconsin.
